COTTAGE LIFE 2008 GREEN COTTAGER AWARDS NOMINATION FORM

► Describe the nominee's green cottaging achievement

N.B. The achievement must be located at a cottage property, cottage-lake residence, or cottaging community in Canada.

Include with each nomination form a detailed description of the green cottaging achievement providing the following information under the following headings:

1. A summary of the achievement (max. 200 words): What it is; what work/materials/innovations it required.
2. Motivation for the achievement (max. 50 words): What event, person, or thing inspired the achievement.
3. People, groups, roles, and time involved in meeting the achievement (max. 50 words):
4. Impact (max. 250 words): The positive environmental impact of the green cottaging achievement. (E.g., it demonstrably benefits the natural environment by, say, restoring a wildlife habitat or turning a "hard" shoreline into a vegetative buffer zone; it implements the 4 Rs: reduce/reuse/recycle/rethink; it conserves energy or water; it improves water quality; it participates in climate change/greenhouse gas reduction by, say, switching to a cleaner-burning woodstove or boat engine.)
5. Inspiration (max. 250 words): The achievement's inspirational value to other cottagers. (E.g., it employs a novel approach to a common problem; it encourages cottagers to take similar or other green action; it educates cottagers about helping the environment.)
6. Other comments (max. 200 words): Any additional information you may wish to provide to enlarge on the five points above, or other details about the green cottaging achievement (e.g., what activities are planned to build upon the achievement in the future).

If nominee has photographs, illustrations, or technical drawings showing the achievement in progress and/or completed, please include with the nomination form. Submissions will not be returned.

Completed nomination form, with summary, supporting photographs, illustrations, and technical drawings, should be e-mailed to greenawards@cottagelife.com or mailed to:
